smued power to obstruct and regulate the free pavigation of the Mississippi tiver by the citizens of this Union, to whom it belongs; therefore, be it Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That Kennucky having as much right to the Mississippi river, to its free, undeterneted navigation, as Louisiana, or any other Slate, and their right being of vital importance to her people, feels it her duty to herself and her sister States, at the earliest day, to make this, her most selemn protest, against any assumption of such power to control the navigation of that river as niterly without right or proper authority, and at what she cannot and will not solunit to.

Resolved further, That the States in the Valley of the Mississippi be carnestly requested to unite with Kentucky in this protest against the violation of a matmal right to vitally important to them all, and while their permanent interests forbid should ever rest in the discretion of any flower.

Resolved. That the Governor be requeste transacit copies of these resolutions to Executives of the States aforesaid. The effect of the passage of these rese tions would be to deny the Independent the milbus of freenen, and to encour te and justify the coercive policy inthi ated in the Inaugural Address, and t invilue a quarrel between the Border ve States and the Conf derate States ins contributing as for as possible t take both a prey to the North !

And the quarrel is to be provoked or rounds unti nable and false, for there has eercand will be not afteropt on the part of se Confederate States to Interior with the er pavigation of the Misslesippl. They iquestionably bavea right, as free States establish ports of entry and custon meses on the Misslssippi and to collect itles thereat; but this is not to obstruct or free navigation of that river, and came regarded in that light. To protest against at right is to hold them as jet parls of he Union sool to justify the Administraon in treating them as such.

This, with ench amendments as the experience of more than a half century have shown proper and uccessary, is the result we present as our countrymen for their sanction and approval. Already we have the most gratifying evidence that the judgment of our constituency will be that we have done our work and done it well.

The occasion will scarcely justify me lutooking to that bright future, which the principles incorporated into this Constitution, it houestly adhered to, promise for our country. Long after those who have been engaged in these labors shall have passed away, and even the memory of their names be forgotten, will this favored land, under the blessings of Providence, flourish and prosper, as the home of a freshappy, and independent people.

Wheeler was arrested by officers Philips and Crane, and ledged in the First District Police Station. He was intoxicated, and last night he was smable or mawilling to give day coherent account of the abir. The shat—he only lived one—was discharged from a six-shooter, five barrels of which were still leaded when brought to the police station. Wheeler is gaining notoriety in this way, having figured before as a homicide, killing a gambler named Cumminugs in a Gravier street barroom, and not long ago nearly performing a similar operation on Bob Johnson.—[N. The only substantial difference between the two sections, that of Mr. Crittenden and the Convention of States, is that the section of the conference does not provide for a division of future acquired territory. This provision was objected to by many of the States represented, because they believed the present boundaries and territory of the United States were large enough the Constitution which presented to the world that we were preparing our government with power to make aggressions upon the territory of our neighbors. thefeating the Republicane, thereby ren-ing it certain that their pelicy would be caused out, the Southern people old have rested in security and the ion would not have been dissolved. Y. HOWE inquired what policy. Be see the Republicans trake war on siav-as a great political and moral evil. y as a great political and moral evil.
Mr. HOWE denied that the Republican ory as a great political and moral evil.

Mr. HOWE denied that the Republicans were a sectional party.

Mr. POUGLAS said the Republican party is based one hostility to slavery. He replied to Mr. Breckmridge's argument that, under the law as it now stands as to every treritory without exception, a man can remove thither with his slave property on equal terms with other property on equal terms with other property. The Republicans, in organizing governments for Nevada, Colorado, and Bacotah at the last session, did what they had not done for twelve years lefore, and did what they fer so long had alwased him (Donglas) for wanting to do. They did it from a same of justice when they got the unjority. The only motive he had for being President was to carry out that policy. He gave the Republicans credit for adopting it after defenting him. The Semior from Pennsylvania, Wilmot, had arrived here in time to see the Republicans repudlate the Wilmot provise, reject the conversation of the temple, and come up to mon-intervention and popular sovereignty.

Mr. HOWE, in the course of the debate.

Mr. HOUGLAS replied—Because the Republicans would not acknowledge it and kept the people in the dark.

Mr. HOECKINRIDIE wished to reply to Mr. Douglas, but the Senale went into Executive Season, and adjourned. This Company is engaged in a recent MARINE AND FIRST INSURANCE BUSINESS, on the most liberal terms.
